To do this, they should communicate their visions of the future to their employees so that they can integrate their unique contributions into the development of new ideas and strategies. Dec 11, 2011 What is a music blog and why should we be reading it? A music blog is an online journal that reviews music, sometimes by band, sometimes by genre, and sometimes by artist. It may be written by a single person or a collection of individuals; it may be an organized web log or a chaotic newsfeed. In short, it is a collection of reviews, interviews, and other musings. Why do we need to read them? The music industry is undergoing some fundamental changes, and this means that the way we consume music is also evolving..
