$ apt-get -y install samba-client" wb1: Try adding a before the 3 POC: sorry i have some new stuff to install sorry I can't help you anymore on it How do I get the weather applet in 14.10? (no, it's not supposed to be that... it's just the first line of the output) (and the terminal is outputting errors) and it looks like something's wrong with my kernel ok, thank you! R13ose, fwupdate and fwcutter wilee-nilee: my update manager? anonymous_, Has it not started? wilee-nilee: nope. anonymous_, try a reboot then. R13ose, weather applet in 14.10...my weather applet has failed, it doesn't launch either...don't remember the circumstances however wilee-nilee: ok, thank you. anonymous_, no problem, be sure to run the update manager from the top menu if it has not started. wilee-nilee: i started it. anon, can you ping the host? Not ubuntu of course...

anonymous_, in the update manager check your sources.list craigbass1976: yea i can. wilee-nilee: what should i check? BluesKaj: why not any more? anon, the sources.list or in software sources Are you talking about web servers or LAN machines? R13ose, I found it in the repos
