The ball dropped to him down the right hand side of the penalty area and he pushed a lovely cross into the area where Finnan was lurking, the defender smashed a fine header past Callum Camps and Oldham Athletic fans breathed a sigh of relief. We could all be in trouble at this stage of the season as this is the time that can make or break you in the Championship. Gary Caldwell's men are flying with four straight wins in the league to be fifth in the table as they prepare to face bottom of the table Barnsley at the weekend. Fellow Championship strugglers Nottingham Forest are only one point behind in 20th place but we can be confident they are not going to make any ground over Christmas. Wigan Athletic are in 16th place after four wins and a draw from their last six games in the league and they play fellow strugglers Leeds United at home next. Wigan's last win in the league was back on the 9th of December when 2d92ce491b
