They will almost certainly soon be introducing dual sport machines that will be off road capable and still pack a punch on the tarmac. Though it has been announced that the demand for the e-rickshaws will reduce by 20 per cent in the next three years as the government makes it mandatory for e-rickshaws to use GPS for geo-fencing, the electric motorbike manufacturers will not stop their efforts to reach out to the masses. They are now focusing on the adventure riders. Though most of these electric bike makers are based in China, South Korea and Japan, they have been trying to enter the Indian market for the last two years and are now making concerted efforts to get the products that they have launched in other markets certified by the competent authorities here. According to a statement issued by the NCRB, a joint venture between AutoRAI and several regional manufacturing and trading companies, two companies from China, one from South Korea and another from Japan are ready to set up assembly units in Delhi NCR by the end of this month. Two of them are the Ergus Ego and the Ego. Both the two are made by the Chinese company of the same name. The Ergus Ego is priced at Rs 4.67 lakh and the Ego at Rs 5.13 lakh. Both the bikes have been certified by the NCRB and will be distributed through AutoRAI. The Ego has a claimed top speed of 65 km/hr while the Ergus Ego has
