I've read a lot of stories about people in love in different countries and continents. Sometimes, it is stated that the love is not so "normal" and "rational". For example: in the movie, "50 First Dates", there is a girl who is in love with a guy who's a bit crazy. What is the difference between a man in love and a "crazy" person? A: A man in love is a person who is driven to seek out love and experience love. There are many different types of love (emotional, platonic, romantic, familial, friendship, and unrequited love). When a man is in love, he wants to experience more love in his life.
