The rapper is suing the University of North Carolina for $20 million, claiming they discriminated against him because of his race. According to TMZ, he's claiming the school discriminated against him because they hired students and faculty that "showed allegiance to, promoted, and supported the 'University of Culture.'" As reported by TMZ, "This includes university literature courses and study materials that encourage people to study and view the world from a black cultural perspective and to use 'blackness' as a primary lens of analysis." Killer Mike is also claiming the school was unsupportive of his "excellent opportunities" at other universities. He's seeking an injunction to prevent any further incidents of this sort.
