Share Featured Review Can't wait for the new Mac App Store apps to load? Check out the Antenna app for more convenient way to listen to your iTunes, Spotify, and other podcast catalogs. This app works best on a fresh install of macOS High Sierra (10.13) or later. A great tool for those of us that travel with an ipad and occasionally want to listen to our favorite music on the go. It's free for personal use, and I think you could easily pay for it if you actually like using it. Can't wait for the new Mac App Store apps to load?
