NetBackup is a powerful network/volume backup solution designed to protect your critical data against accidental data loss, natural disasters and system failure. Network backup is available in two modes. The first mode, asynchronous, backs up files while the second mode, synchronous, starts backing up files immediately after a file operation is completed. NetBackup supports file permissions and ACL (Access Control List) protection. Furthermore, NetBackup is extremely robust in the face of catastrophies or disasters such as loss of power, high cable bills, etc. Backed up files can be restored at the point of backup using the multi-OS restore feature. It's also possible to completely restore a computer with no data loss, using the expert restore feature. Can you help me with this error, i can't find how to fix. The error 'Access denied for user 'default_group'@' (using password: NO)' occurs when I try to display the Network Managers list.
