Love Heart 3D Screensaver Activation Code With Keygen

The hearts are created in three layers. The first layer represents the view of the first period of the transition of love to the person. The second layer represents the influence of thoughts and feelings of the person in the second period of the transition of love. The third layer expresses the feeling of the person in the third period of the transition. These hearts are created in three colors - red, green and blue. Color of the heart changes in accordance with the emotions which are recorded in the second and the third layer. The heart of each layer has a small central area with a "lucky" symbol, around it is written the heart symbol, which you can see on top of it. The application is ideal for couples. It is possible to create a unique relationship. Thank you for your attention! You are the first who downloaded this application!
