Manchester United aims to lure Siggi, Tottenham Hotspur, Lyon ace to Old Trafford this summer According to the national media, Manchester United is set to lure Barcelona starlet Siggi Kjartansson to Old Trafford this summer. The 17-year-old joins United on a six-year contract, and is expected to leave Barcelona this summer once his contract expires. According to the Independent, Siggi will be part of the club's squad for the Premier League season opener against West Ham United on 18 August. The highly-rated teenager will be a part of an ever-expanding cadre of talent, that include new arrivals Marcus Rashford and Diogo Dalot, and outfield returnees Matteo

Darmian and Jesse Lingard. Manchester United wants to sign Barcelona starlet Siggi Kjartansson this summer. Although the diminutive Schalke midfielder has enjoyed a fruitful loan spell in Spain, his lack of first-team experience was exposed last season following the news that he had a recurrence of a thigh problem. His absence also saw Dennis Praet take over the holding midfielder role, and five goals in his only Premier League appearance against Arsenal. Praet, though, has proven to be an astute signing at the start of the season,
