2: Bird's eye view The computer can do a lot. But it can't fly. Like in the 13th episode of Star Wars, where in front of your eyes the Wookiee spiderman crashed into the planet and became something like a mouse pad. Therefore, it is difficult to imagine what other possibilities a personal computer has, especially if you can communicate with it, that is, "play pranks" with it. In any case, it is difficult to imagine a modern computer without an Internet connection. New opportunities become more accessible every year. On the Internet, life is happening. There you can find answers to many questions, including job search, education, entertainment, etc. There are a lot of interesting people to whom you can ask your questions. And if in any - that moment you will understand that sometimes information on the Internet is not as real as you think - use your own head.
