2019. Here's the transcript of one of the videos embedded in that post.
You'll notice that the disciples agree to perform a number of things in Jesus' name: Narrator:
The scene we are witnessing now is a well-known episode in the life of Jesus. [...] [Jesus] became vulnerable with a mortal illness, and the Lord commanded his disciples to aid him in his earthly suffering. [...]

Jesus commanded his disciples to make three things known: Jesus: You have given me authority to name whom I will forgive. Any debt I have forgiven you, you must also forgive others. And you have been given this authority. Do not leave Jerusalem before the Father gives you a bodily form to take with you. When you go, do not think to go as individuals, but as one. Paul: We are in agreement. Narrator: Will you each repeat after me? Peter: “Father, I am willing that you should take me away, and that I am going. Yet I want to stay with the Lord.” John: “I am going that they may be gathered in. I will be with you, even to the end of the age.” Narrator: His disciples agreed to these things, one by one.
