R01.00.02 Programming of radios for specific phones. (For APX radios) Download Here R01.00.02 Programming of radios for specific phones. (For APX radios) In Android's market place, choosing APX radio as the "search" and "radio" types programs the radio for its exact model, the manual says that it is a programming program for APX radios. It appears to be a new program version so I would not expect my phone to work. Here is a response I got from Motorola. I have tested this as well and did not have any luck. I wanted to see if it would be possible to attempt anyway. Was this program offered by direct sales? I was told they are not able to help with this type of request. I have tried calling their sales department and they are telling me I need to visit their website which is not helpful, they do not want to provide the software. They do not have a phone number on the website or a way to pay by phone. Is there a way to receive a response? Is it a legal request? Here is the link that the quote is referencing from.
