Tuesday, August 16, 2009 Fall.. Is it Fall yet?? I'm so excited about Fall!!! Yes... Fall is my favorite season. I don't know why... I just love it so much! Most recently I think I have said it was my favorite season about 3 months ago. I love the chills in the air, the sweaters and boots, the crisps, whatever the heck that is, pumpkin lattes, apple cobbler, buttermilk pie, some of my favorite movies (City of Angels, Hitch, The Rookie, The Village) and of course the leaves in all of their various colors and shapes. The trick with the leaves is that they seem to get more beautiful as the days go by. I don't know why, but that is just how it is. I really love fall so much that I took about a month to get one of my favorite fall posts ready for you to see. It's fairly short and sweet, but I hope you like it. After that, I think I want to make a huge pumpkin recipe filled with lots of butter and melted brown sugar.

U-25 (cup) The U-25 cup is the 25th cup size of cups in the U.S. cups system. It is taller and thinner than a "normal" half-pint cup and has a diameter about 2.6 inches (66mm). The change to the new cup size came after a marketing study which indicated that replacing the U.S. pint and ounce sizes with the U-25 cup size would increase consumer demand for smaller sizes, making it a more profitable cup size. The U-25 cup is also a unit of measurement for milk. Q: How to calculate $\int_0^{2\pi} \frac{\sin^3(x)}{\sin(x) + \sin^3(x)} dx$ I want to calculate the following definite integral: $\int_0^{2\pi} \frac{\sin^3(x)}{\sin(x) + \sin^3(x)} dx$ The formula for expanding and integrating under the sum seems to be very involved. Is there an easier way? A: A slightly easier way to integrate the following integral: $\int_0^{2\pi} \frac{\sin^3(x)}{\sin x + \sin^3(x)} dx$ $= \int_0^{2\pi} \frac{\sin^3(x)}{\sin^3(x) - \sin(x)} dx$ $= \int_0^{2\pi} \frac{[\sin^3(x) - \sin(x)] + [\sin^3(x) + \sin(x)]}{2} dx$ $= 2 \int_0^{2\pi} \frac{\sin^3(x) + \sin(x)}{2} dx - \frac{\pi}{2}$ $= \int_0^{2\pi} \sin^3(x) + \sin(x) dx - \frac{\pi}{2}$ Q: What is the origin of the phrase "as white as a sheet"? What is the origin of the phrase "as white as a sheet"? When I was a child I heard this phrase from both adults and children and I always wondered what it meant, not knowing that it had a precise meaning as a single blanket. Here are several phrases that indicate it could mean several things. "white as a sheet": As white as a sheet: "white as a sheet": When I checked its etymology in several dictionaries I found no origin of the phrase.
