Add your favorite GrooveShark playlists to this Music Player. Enjoy! GrooveWalrus requires a free GrooveShark account to import playlists. Please note: New features will be added in the future. What's new in version 12.3.8.3: Added support for Apple Music. Added F12 as a full screen keyboard shortcut. Added a new interface for Google Play. Improved the error messages. Fixed a memory leak. Fixed some issues with playlists. Fixed some issues with GrooveShark in the offline mode. Fixed some issues with Last.fm. Other fixes and improvements. GrooveWalrus - a stand-alone music player with GrooveShark and Last.fm support. the app is not for just playing music. It is a stand alone program that does just that, let's you play music with GrooveShark and Last.fm. I love playing music on the internet, and I like GrooveShark for its organization feature of the playlists that you can create, and Last.fm for its feature to follow musicians that you like. I usually create playlists for every genre of music, and I like that GrooveWalrus supports a search feature which is amazing when you are trying to find a specific song, so that you don't have to open every folder, play list, and playlist to find it.
