I'm doing some research and design of measurement model of an indoor air quality system using PyMC3. Here's my problem: Let μ and σ represent the mean value and variance of the measurement error of the sensors respectively. I've designed a Gaussian process model to capture this error: $Y=f(X)+\epsilon$ $\epsilon \sim \text{mathcal{GP}}(m(X), k(\tau, X, X'))$ where $f(X)$ is my system measurement model, X is the state vector (including the air quality conditions, d0c515b9f4
