----- F1History is a program for those who are interested in the results of the past and statistics. F1History includes detailed results of all the World Championship races, the details of the drivers, his/her career (wins, podiums etc.), and the statistics of the season. One of the advantages of F1History is the possibility to create your own F1 Statistics. The database is in the Excel/CSV file format, that means it can be imported to other programs (Excel, OpenOffice Calc, notepad, Word,...) or tables (PostgreSQL, MySQL,...). Here is a complete guide to Install, Use and Uninstall F1History. 1. Install F1History: ----- 1st step: Install the program with f1history_setup_v1_16.exe 2nd step: After that run update_e.exe and install it to the same directory (default is: C:Program FilesF1History). 2. F1History consists of several modules. For the user, you only need: ----- Module - F1Stats | L Version - 16.0 | L Category - Drivers | L Keywords - Statistics, StatisticsMod | L *** Get drivers stats (GP, quali,...) *** | - Show F1History Statistics | - Driver Information | - Compare drivers | - Compare similar drivers | - Compare race by race by drivers | - Extract driver's career by season | - Extract driver's career by drivers | - Show driver's overview (All drivers) | - Extraction of F1 driver over seasons | - Help | - Show all statistics (F1, auto,...) | - Show all parts in details | - Options | - Debug | - Statistics | - Sports Stats | - FormulaStats |

What's New In F1History?

The program is a history collection from F1 and Gridster (multiple solutions) It contains all statistics (wins, podiums etc) of all drivers, teams and engines. All the history is sorted by seasons and years, so just jump to the season/year you want to see. In the sort menu you can choose: season (including year), year, driver (including all driver statistics, age, crashes, wins etc), number of races, number of cars used. The program is also sorted by type of collisions, crashes, wall-offs, collisions with other cars etc. This sorting is in the configuration section. You can also select the level (the minimum percentage of results you want to see). The latest updates of the program is available in the message section. If you have a problem or suggestion, please contact me. I'm looking forward to your comments and feedback. WHAT'S NEW 1.0.0: 1st: All issues fixed. 2nd: all cars added to the database.
