I was also fortune to work with a community of medical providers and practitioners who provide the full spectrum of specialty medical services and health care for our community. In the early 2000's, I began working in private practice. With my own acute caseload of patients, I provided medical care, mental health counseling, and community health education. I was also fortunate to have one of my closest friends, Dr. Billy Burns, move to the area to open a private practice and also serve as my clinical preceptor during his community and family medicine training. Dr. Burns is one of the most compassionate and caring physicians and caregivers I have ever known. Since 2015, I have bee
