On the afternoon of February 14, defendant George Sadek waited for his older sister outside a Busch Blvd. IHOP, where he caught sight of Jessica Simpson celebrating her twenty-third birthday. She was looking at a cell phone and pulled it away from her face to snap a picture of him. "You're a pretty girl," he said, and extended his hand. Simpson, not being on the best of terms with her estranged husband, Matt, grabbed a cell phone out of her purse and snapped a picture of the two of them together. In the jury's decision on Thursday, Simpson's privacy-invading handiwork was insufficient to divert Sadek from his true target. When Simpson, an El Segundo resident, was asked if there was anything else that she would like to say, she pondered the question for several seconds. "I wanted to say
