Mageia is approaching to be ready for deployment for the end of the year or early next year. This is a good news as many users are waiting for the last version of Mageia 2 to end its beta phase. This software is based on Linux kernel 3.18.5, this is a big milestone for the project. Mageia 3 and 3.1 versions will also be based on Linux kernel 3.18.7 and Linux kernel 3.18.9 respectively. Those numbers are still important because they are the last Linux kernels stable releases before the current Linux kernel 4.1. Mageia is really a nice distribution for old computer, and this is the perfect time to take a look at this project as they are finishing their beta phase and preparing the release. You can take a look at their release notes and to their website. There are some keys to download Mageia 3 32 and 64 bits: As usual, you can use the torrent to download the ISOs. If you do not have a torrent client, you can use the BitTorrent built-in functionality of most major Linux distributions.
