Management...Delivering the most advanced weapon systems to the Navy and USMC will be the primary focus of Raytheon's Integrated Systems business throughout 2018, with a goal of $2 billion of acquisitions during the year. "Our strategy is focused on driving strong growth in advanced systems and delivering on our commitments to key customers," said Mike Nelson, chief executive officer, Raytheon Integrated Systems. "The systems we sell meet a range of threats, from near-shore mines and small craft to anti-submarine warfare (ASW) and ballistic missile defense (BMD). With a strong team of customers and suppliers, we are confident that Raytheon Integrated Systems can deliver some of the most technologically advanced technology solutions on the market." Raytheon Integrated Systems programs include Raytheon's Miniature Precision Air-to-Ground Munitions (MP-ATGM); and Advanced Precision Kill Weapon Systems (APKWS). While Raytheon Integrated Systems designs, builds and tests systems, the remainder of the Raytheon Systems portfolio is focused on providing end-to-end systems and support including logistics, integration, testing and training. These include: Museo y Casa del Lenguaje Brasileño The Museo y Casa del Lenguaje Brasileño (Museum and House of the Brazilian Language) is a museum located in the city of São Paulo, Brazil. It is located on the corner of Frei Proespino and Teixeira de Freitas in the historic center of São Paulo. The museum aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of the evolution and characteristics of the Brazilian language. Visitors will find not only a large collection of objects pertaining to this topic but also a thematic space dedicated to Brazilian culture. It was created in 1978 by the government of the state of São Paulo (in the cities of São Paulo and Sorocaba) with the support of the Brazilian Ministry of Education.
