Delta Force: Black Hawk Down is a game that lets you complete the missions that take place in several cities such as New York, Paris, Rome and Moscow. In every of those missions you have to deal with a lot of odd characters who are related to the main character that you have to confront with. All of these characters are at the same level of your own squad and they need to be eliminated by you in each of the game variants, but they are not bound to one specific place. You have to play those missions in a mission, and you can play those missions in any order, so be careful if you have a really tight schedule. By the way, in order to save your own life, you must take the risky decision to team up with one of the other characters of your squad and fight as a team of two, or if you are alone, you have to take the risk to stay alive. There are two rather different weapons at your disposal. You can use your own firearms which you should take full advantage of. If you have a better rifle you can take full advantage of it, and it will easily take down all of your enemies.
